DETERMINATION OF CHARGE

The EEOC issues the following determination: The EEOC will not proceed further with its investigation and makes no determination about whether further investigation would establish violations of the statute. This does not mean the claims have no merit. This determination does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. The EEOC makes no finding as to the merits of any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHT TO SUE

This is official notice from the EEOC of the dismissal of your charge and of your right to sue. If you choose to file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) on this charge under federal law in federal or state court, your lawsuit must be filed WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this notice. Receipt generally occurs on the date that you (or your representative) view this document. You should keep a record of the date you received this notice. Your right to sue based on this charge will be lost if you do not file a lawsuit in court within 90 days. (The time limit for filing a lawsuit based on a claim under state law may be different.)

If you file a lawsuit based on this charge, please sign-in to the EEOC Public Portal and upload the court complaint to charge 433-2023-03154.

Signature and Verification	I understand this charge will be filed with both the EEOC and the State or local Agency, if any. I will advise the agencies if I change my address, phone, or email. I will cooperate fully with them in the processing of my charge in accordance with their procedures. I understand by signing below that I am filing a charge of employment discrimination with the EEOC. I understand that the EEOC is required by law to give a copy of the charge, which includes my allegations and my name, to the organization named above. I also understand that the EEOC can only investigate charges of job discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, or based on retaliation for filing a charge of job discrimination, participating in an investigation of a job discrimination complaint, or opposing job discrimination. I declare under penalty of perjury that the above is true and correct. Signature: Leroy Elliot Date: 8-7-2023

I, Leroy Titus Elliott, Jr, was employed by Duke University Press in Durham as a copyeditor working remotely from April 1, 2022 to April 1, 2023.

To my knowledge and belief, Duke University Press employs more than fifteen individuals and is an employer under the law.

I am a qualified individual with disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, and Duke University Press was aware of my disabilities.

I was discriminated against by Duke University Press when I was laid off by its senior editor Ms. Amy Buchanan because I was late with two editing projects on the basis of two successive disabilities.

The first disability happened on or about January 15, 2023. It was a sudden onset of benign positional vertigo, the effects of which remain to this day.

The second disability happened on or about March 3, 2023, when I was assaulted by my former housemate in Chapel Hill. The effects of the assault remain to this day.

On August 28, 2023, I filed a charge with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

In addition, I have already uploaded into the U.S. EEOC website a note from my primary care provider testifying that I do have benign positional vertigo.

I have also already uploaded into the U.S. EEOC website a subpoena for my former housemate to appear in Orange County District Court on charges of assault against me.

On November 8, 2023, I received, via the U.S. EEOC, a “right to sue” document, which means that I can file a lawsuit against Duke University Press, either in state court or federal court within 90 days.

I would like to file a lawsuit against Duke University Press in state court, seeking an as-yet-unspecified amount in monetary damages and an as-yet-unspecified amount in punitive damages.

I, Leroy Titus Elliott, Jr.,
first saw the document named “Determination and Notice of Rights,”
from the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, on November 8, 2023.

The 90th day will happen on February 8, 2024.
